TRANSPORTATION OPTIONS TO SERVICES

In the Tri-Valley, there are several transportation options available to residents

WHEELS DIAL-A-RIDE

- Dial-A-Ride is public shared ride transportation service for people with disabilities
- At least one-day advanced reservation required
- The Dial-A-Ride fare is $3.50 per one-way trip.

HOURS OF OPERATION:

In Dublin and Livermore - Approximately 4:30 a.m. to 1:30 a.m. seven days per week.

In Pleasanton - when Pleasanton Paratransit Service is not available.

WHEELS RAPID BUS SERVICE

RAPID BUS SERVICE

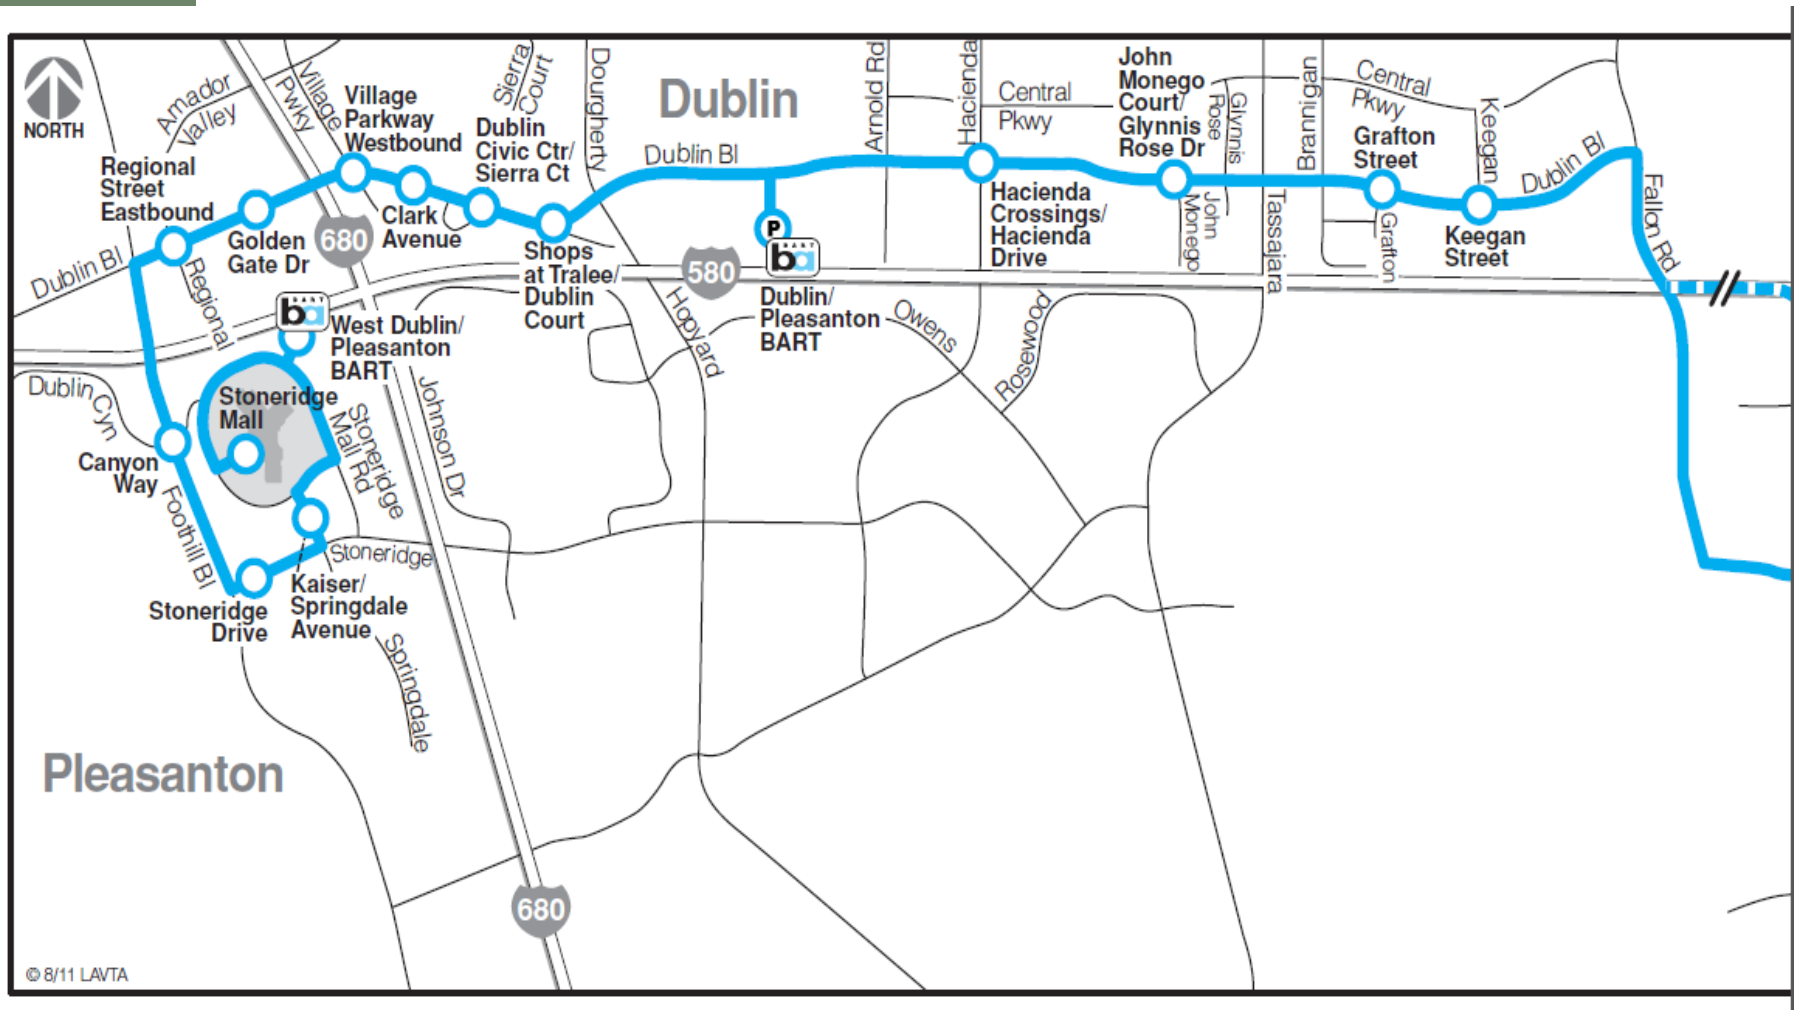

- The Rapid is a high-capacity transit system that operates in the Tri-Valley from East Livermore to West Pleasanton and points in between like the East Dublin Pleasanton BART station.

Here's why the Rapid is so fast:

- The Rapid runs every 10 minutes during the peak commute times of the day.
- Special "green light" traffic signal technology helps Rapid buses move smoothly through intersections with less time waiting at red lights.
- Fewer and better stops keep buses going
- Easy-on, Easy-off buses
